Ethnicity Hot Facts

Introduction

This fact sheet provides information from the 2011 National Household Survey (NHS) for:

- the ethnic origin of the Richmond population;
- "visible minorities" in Richmond, and within Richmond Planning Areas;
- the Aboriginal (First Nations) population in Richmond.

Ethnic Origin

Ethnic Origin refers to the ethnic or cultural origins of the respondent's ancestors. An ancestor is someone from whom a person is descended and is usually more distant than a grandparent. It is distinct from place of birth, immigration status or language spoken. (For more information about those topics, see the separate Immigration and Language Hot Facts sheets.) A person can have more than one ethnic origin.

The Most Frequently Reported Ethnic Origins

Richmond boasts a great diversity of backgrounds: over 140 different ethnic origins with at least 25 people were reported.

The most commonly reported ethnic origin in Richmond is Chinese, with 91,890 people or 49 percent of the City's population having this background. This proportion has grown from 34% in 1996, 40% in 2001 and 45% in 2006. The next 10 most common ethnic origins are shown in the table below. Please note that this is a population estimate. The sum of the ethnic groups are greater than the total population estimate because a person may report more than one ethnic origin in the NHS.

Ethnic Origin	2011 NHS
Chinese	91,890
English	20,790
Canadian	15,065
Scottish	14,995
Filipino	14,320
East Indian	12,855
Irish	11,395
German	9,200
French	5,680
Japanese	4,510
Ukrainian	4,505
Total Population	189,305

Population Groups and Visible Minority Population Defined

In addition to asking about ethnic ancestry, the National Household Survey also asks respondents to identify the population group (or groups) to which they belong, such as White, Chinese, South Asian, Black, etc. Like ethnic origin, this should not be confused with citizenship or nationality.

Visible minority population is defined for federal employment equity purposes as "persons, other than Aboriginal persons, who are non-Caucasian in race or non-white in colour."

Visible Minorities are Now the Majority in Richmond

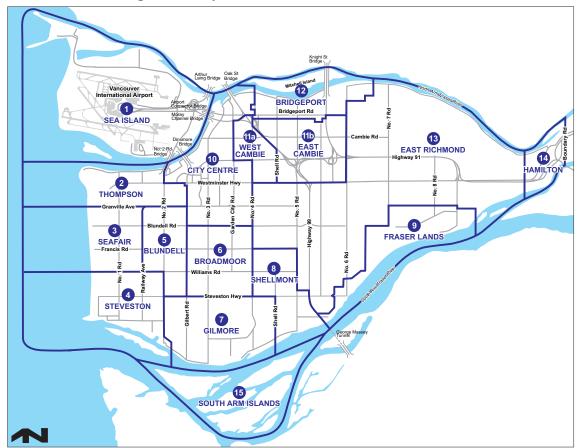

In Richmond in 2011, 70.4% of the population is a visible minority under the definition above, the highest proportion of any municipality in BC and the second highest (after Markham, Ontario) in Canada. The predominant minority group in Richmond is Chinese, at 47% of the total population (the highest proportion in Canada by a wide margin). The next most common minority groups are the South Asian group (for example East Indian, Pakistani), at 8% of the total, and Filipino at 7% of the total.

Aboriginal Population

Aboriginal identity includes persons who reported being an Aboriginal person, that is, First Nations (North American Indian), Métis or Inuk (Inuit) and/or those who reported Registered or Treaty Indian status, and/or those who reported membership in a First Nation or Indian band.

- In Richmond, a total of 1,935 people reported Aboriginal identity in the 2011 National Household Survey.
- In Richmond in 2011, the approximate distribution of the population within these groups was (some of the population did not include this information in their response to the question on Aboriginal identity):
  - 66% First Nations (North American Indian);
  - 30% Métis:
  - 1% Inuk (Inuit).
- In 2011, Aboriginal people accounted for 1.0% of the total population of Richmond, compared to 2.3% for Metro Vancouver and 5.4% for BC.
